WHAT Richmond needs, and needs badly, is a good Commercial Club, composed of her energetic, wide awake business men; men who are for the upbuilding and substantial growth of our city. We can look about us and see our neighbor towns getting ahead of us in this matter. There is no doubt but that such an organization tends to increase a town or city's growth and insures more business and more prosperous times. Why should Richmond sit still in this matter? The past few years have revealed a marked progressive spirit here, but now the one thing lacking is an organized body or club of our business men, whose object will be the continual growth and a general revival in business lines in the city. There is no question as to Richmond having splendid facilities as to locality, etc. We are in the very heart of Madison, one of the richest counties in the State. We have in our midst the finest schools, churches and other public buildings that are the pride of our town. We also have some business men when it comes to our business men; but the missing link, the thing necessary to keep a lively interest and put Richmond on a basis with the first cities in the State is a Commercial Club. There is no reason, absolutely none, why a Commercial Club should not be organized here. See to it, brother merchants and business men in general, and let such a club be organized which will start the wheel of commercial growth and trade revolving more rapidly than ever before in the history of our beautiful city. Let our motto be, A Better Richmond.

The question, who is the Eighth Congressional District going to send to Congress next time? keeps coming up. Almost every day we hear it. People are already beginning to think the matter over and are looking for a man who will not only be able to carry the District, but one who will represent it creditably after election. We have given the matter no little consideration ourselves. A number of good men have already been named. Some of them would make good Congressmen, but not a single man has yet been mentioned who in a general election could pull a big vote. We have in mind and we arise to nominate a man who can come more nearly measuring up to the high standard and carrying out the ancient traditions of the Democratic party than any young man in the district—a man who is universally popular, admired wherever he is known, and an orator and public speaker stands today head and shoulders above any man in the Eighth district. He is clean, honest, fearless, aggressive, Democratic to the core, and we believe if he chooses to make the race he can win over any other man who is proposed. The man referred to is none other than "Dick" Miller, of Madison county, who is well known throughout the district, and who will likely be elected Speaker of the House at the next session of the Legislature. Who seconds our nomination?—S. W. Menefee, in Kentucky Advocate, September 22, 1906.

The above notice is, in fact, a credit to editor Menefee and all Madison should take off her hat to one who so liberally compliments one of her most gifted sons. It is useless to say that the words of high praise are just and most warmly bestowed, for all who know our fellow townsman and his wonderful attainments, which reach to magnanimity, can and do second all that Brother Menefee has said.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Little Love Stories

Mr. Rowland Rouns, of this city, and Miss Studie Asher, of Red House, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock last Wednesday by Squire Jas. Dykes.

Thomas S. Warren and Miss Fannie

Long and Irvine Davis and Miss Nora

Warren, all of Madison county, were married at the courthouse in this city on Saturday, by Judge A. D. Ford—

The following dispatch from Lexington appeared in Thursday's Courier:

"C. S. West and Miss Lydia

A. Noe, a romantic couple of Paint Lick, Ky., chose the dome of the courthouse here as the place to have their wedding celebrated to day. When the ceremony was over, the bride and groom left for their home in Paint Lick, Ky.

The news of Mr. Philip Gentry's marriage last week in Argenta, Mo., came as quite a surprise to his relatives and friends here, as no intimation had been given of such a union. His young lady was Miss Viola Wright, of Louisville, but lately a resident of this city. She is said to be a most attractive young woman. Mr.

Gentry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin

Gentry of this county and is a steady young man. He and his bride are now visiting his parents. The Clinton extends congratulations.

The Shelbyville News of last week had the following notice: "The marriage of Mr. Charles H. Jett and Miss Angelina Cobb came as a pleasant surprise to friends here. The nuptials occurred last May from the Jeffersonville, Indiana. The groom is son of Mr. Shelby Jett, one of this county's most prominent farmers.

Until recently he was the police and accommodating clerk at the County Prison. He is a young man of sterling worth, possessed with those qualities that make up a gentleman.

He is likewise a country and handsome appearance, and is just the kind of a man that any woman could feel proud

The Via Stock Company,

Special mention should be made of the vaudeville features of the Via Stock Company which opens an engagement at the Grand, commencing Monday, October 24, which will include some of the best known people of the vaude-villie stage. They do not give you the old time singing and dancing alone, but carry four people who do not take any part in the performance and are engaged especially for the vaudeville stage. Ladies free on opening night under the usual conditions.

A TRUE FOX HUNTER.

Mr. Robert Walker informs us that the great stallion, Rex Arbuckle, was winner in the harness class for stallions four years and over, at the great

State Fair in Lexington last week.

He was victor over such horses as Bernadotta 229 and others of equal fame.

On Saturday he won the sweepstakes for harness stallions any age. Rex

Arbuckle has not been defeated a time this season, a record his owners should feel very proud of.

For two years an effort has been made to form an organization of growers to fight the so-called Tobacco Trust, the promoters designing to form so large a combination of the growers as to control the crop, which was to be sold direct to the manufacturers, or, in extreme cases, to be manufactured by the company itself.
